

VOICE OF THE VINEYARD

"There is a law irrevocably decreed in heaven before the foundations of this world, upon which all blessings are predicated — And when we obtain any blessing from God, it is by obedience to that law upon which it is predicated." (D&C 130:20-21)

President's Message

On the wall of the mission home we have hung a print of a beautiful portrait of Jesus Christ. This lovely gift was presented to us at the conclusion of a farewell fireside just before we left Orlando, Florida. We were the speakers at the fireside. Imagine my amazement when I read the title of the portrait, "I Have Prayed for Thee." The topic of my talk that evening had been "I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren." (Luke 22:32) I love this concept of Christ praying for us, that our faith will not fail us. As missionaries, we often pray for others that their faith will not fail them. As friends and family members, even as strangers, we pray for others, that their faith will not fail them. I am sure that while Christ was in the Garden of Gethsemane, we were all praying for Him, that His faith would not fail Him. How can our prayers be of assistance to others? How can we help others so that their faith will not fail them?

In a talk he gave in 1992, President Thomas S. Monson said that "through righteous living and by extending the helping hand and the understanding heart, [we] can rescue, [we] can save." In 1 Timothy 4: 14, 12 we read: "Neglect not the gift that is in thee." "Be thou an example of the believers in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

"How can our prayers be of assistance to others? How can we help others so that their faith will not fail them?"

I have an amazing friend who was sent to me by Father in Heaven to rescue me. She and her family came to stay with us for two weeks one summer when I was a young and inexperienced mother who needed someone to show her how to be a good mother. I cried when Elizabeth and her family left. I was not alone, however. She had shown me by her example how to be a mother, how to mother my children. She had shown me what to fix them for breakfast, how to teach them things, how to love them unconditionally.

She had taught me through her example of charity, faith, and purity. She will always be my rescuer. I am also certain that others have been my rescuers. Perhaps in more or less dramatic ways, but certainly they have been my rescuers.

The lighthouse is a well-known symbol. It is a beacon both to those who are far off, as well as a comfort to those who are near. In Hymn #335 we find these amazing words:

Brightly beams our Father's mercy from his lighthouse evermore,
But to us he gives the keeping of the lights along the shore.

Dark the night of sin has settled; loud the angry billows roar.

Eager eyes are watching, longing, for the lights along the shore.

Trim your feeble lamp, my brother; some poor sailor, tempest-tossed,

Trying now to make the harbor, in the darkness may be lost.

Chorus: Let the lower lights be burning; send a gleam across the wave.

Some poor fainting, struggling seaman you may rescue, you may save.

May we always be "beacons of light" that will "strengthen our brethren." Let us be alert to the opportunities to help others, by the good deeds that we do for them, by the prayers of our hearts for them, and by the great "examples of the believers" that we set for them. Remember, the more we demonstrate our obedience, the more converted we become; the more converted we become, the more powerful will be our prayers for others so that their faith will not fail them. We can rescue; we can save.

Sincerely, Sister Sonne

ASSISTANTS TO THE PRESIDENT

The rain this week has brought much joy and light into this valley.
The plants, trees, and animals have been awakened and life has been zapped back into their veins. The rain brings clarity of the air and a rejuvenation of the soul in which we may all delight.
We need spiritual "RAIN" for us to do the Lord's work here on our missions. This nourishment to our souls comes by being obedient to the rules that are here for us, such as: the white handbook and the mission rules. Without it we deprive ourselves of the nourishment from God. The rain, or rules, in this part of the Lord's vineyard are very important to our success. We need to understand the rules and live them as God would have us do. Just as Christ told Nephi, "And I will give unto him a commandment that he shall do none other work, save the work which I shall command him." (2 Nephi 3:8) The Lord will bless you as you follow the rules He gives us.
There are many blessings in store for all of us when we abide by the rules of the Lord. We love you all.

"I know that which the Lord hath commanded me, and I glory in it. I do not glory in myself, but I glory in that which the Lord hath commanded me; yea, and this is my glory, that perhaps I may be an instrument in the hands of God to bring some soul to repentance; and this is my joy." (Alma 29:9) True joy comes from becoming an instrument in the Lord's hands. On my mission I have served in 82 wards and have been to about 280 Sacrament Meetings in 8 different areas. I've had 14 different companions and 106 p-days of EFY music. I've been through 8 white shirts, 2 pairs of shoes, 2 cans of shoe polish, lots of band-aids, 2 suits and many socks. I've knocked on enough doors to create a callus on the right side of the middle finger on my right hand. Too many door slams to count, too many angry people with harsh words to count. But this has become the most sacred experience of my life. I have felt true joy for the first time in my life. I know who my Heavenly Father and Savior Jesus Christ are and that my relationship with Them will continue forever. I know the spirit, have battled the adversary and heard every attack on the church possible. I know the power that comes through obedience and righteousness as I have done my very best. I have been "treated as though [I was an] angel sent from God to save them from everlasting destruction—" (Alma 27:4) I have been supported by my God to do this great work. God lives. Jesus IS the Christ. I have come to know this through the quiet, gentle whisperings of His spirit. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." (2 Tim 4:7) I love you all and be righteous! gaining in small part His desires to serve others. These two years have set the foundation for my life, being obedient to commandments and sharing the joy and light. I hope to build on it for the rest of my life. During this time I have felt the spirit change me and it gets stronger as I reach the end. I hope I have left somewhat of a legacy with the elders and sisters with whom I have served. This church is true, hold tight to that and to our Savior, Jesus Christ; through Him we are changed. Let charity and love course through you. Joseph Smith said "Love is one of the chief characteristics of Diety and ought to be manifested by those who aspire to be the sons of God. A man filled with the love of God is not content with blessing his family alone, but ranges through the whole world, anxious to bless the whole human race." (H.C.4:227) Let that be your motivation to serve.

Time's up for me to labor in this part of the Lord's vineyard. But I will continue my labor wherever the Lord wants me to go. I'm grateful for the opportunity my Heavenly Father has given me to serve around such a wonderful group of soldiers and learn from them. I never imagined that the Lord would have brought me to this wonderful country and especially this city of the Mountain of the Lord. It was an honor to serve with President and Sister Moeller and President and Sister Sonne. I've learned from their counsel and the Christlike attributes that they possess. Gracias a todos mis amigos de la mision les quiero mucho y los voy a extranor. Sigam adelante con firmeza en Cristo, no los voy lo ue nuestro Padre Celestial quiere que hagamos. D&C 15:6: "And now behold, I say unto you, that the thing which will be of the most worth unto you will be to declare repentance unto this people, that you may bring souls unto me, that you may rest with them in the kingdom of my Father." All the rejections: "I'm not interested" "I told you not to come back," and my favorite, "You've got to stop, you're bringing the world down" have been worth it. It's all been worth it to see those who have embraced the gospel, allowed the atonement of Jesus Christ to work in their lives, and begun their journey back to our Father in Heaven through baptism & confirmation. I'm so grateful for this time I've had to serve the Lord here in Salt Lake city, Utah. I'm so grateful for the things I've learned, the people I've taught, and the friends I've made. I know this is the Lord's work. It is the most important work on the earth. It cannot be stopped because it's true. Joseph Smith saw God, the Father, and His Son, Jesus Christ. Christ's church has been restored to the earth and we are led by a living prophet today. I love you all. Love, Sister Cox

My most cherished experiences from my mission have been those times that I've felt the spirit the strongest. That is what I am really taking home with me, what I have to show for a year and a half serving the Lord. Those spiritual highs when I felt the Lord's hand guide my ideas, words, and actions have been imbedded upon my soul, along with a determination to share the gospel with all of God's children because of the increased love He has given me for the people around me. I'm so grateful to the Lord for the many incredibly strong friends I have made in investigators and other missionaries in so short a time. The gospel of Jesus Christ is truly a unifying force! These are a few things I've learned on my mission that stick out to me:

1. Inspiration from Heavenly Father is essential.
2. Obedience is necessary to receive the blessings.
3. Love your companions, you'll find great joy in your friendships.

The Spirit has witnessed to me that this is the only true church on this earth. It was restored through the Prophet Joseph Smith and it is guided by Gordon B. Hinckley today. The Book of Mormon is the Word of God! Never give up! Until we meet again...

Elders and Sisters of the Salt Lake City Mission, these last 2 years have been the greatest years of my life. It isn't every day that we get to dedicate everything to the Lord and give Him all our hearts, minds, might and strength. He has indeed taught me from on high these past years. He has taken me out of the world and has been my teacher. It has been a great experience to be able to receive that type of teaching. It is a great blessing to serve here in the center of the church and be able to be at the feet of living prophets and apostles. They are men of God. Jesus Christ leads this church, I know that it is true. This is the greatest work that we could ever embark upon. Remember, obedience brings blessings and happiness, serve the Lord, work hard, smile and be happy. A todos en la programa espanol: siguieron bautizando, hablen con todos, no dejan que un minuto les pasa. Take care Salt Lake City Mission. Elder Browning

The time that the Lord allowed me to have as a full-time missionary is up, so I will go home. My eyes have been opened and I see now that, before this sacred time, I was taught by the precepts of men. For the past two years I have been taught by God and it has made all the difference in my life. I have learned the blessings associated with obedience, the reward after opposition, the joy of diligent service, and the infinite love our Heavenly Father has for his children. I pray that I will be wise by applying the knowledge I have gained through my morning scripture study. I pray that I will always remember the miracles that I have participated in and witnessed, and let those memories govern my future choices. Thank you for all the great examples that you are to me. In two years I have learned so much. One of the things I have realized is how much work there is to do. Before this life, we worked and prepared to come here (see D&C 138:56). We all prepared sometime in our earlier years to serve missions. I have been so blessed to serve here for two years. It really is a short time, work as hard as you can.

Eventually the time comes for each of us to return home. Soon I will no longer be a full-time missionary, but I hope to spend the rest of my life in the service of my Savior. Work hard, expect miracles. The Book of Mormon is a true book, Joseph Smith is the prophet of the restoration. Gordon B. Hinckley is a true prophet. Well, in the past two years, I have grown so much. I have a greater understanding of life and it's importance. I have loved being able to be a servant of Jesus Christ. I have felt just a portion of what joy and happiness that He has for all of the children of God. I am so grateful for all the people that I have been able to teach and see baptized. To my companions, what fun we have had together, some more than others. And also to the Poly's of the mission, never forget that I am brown too and will forever be in the brotherhood. As Peter and John were questioned by the Sanhedrin for their refusal to cease preaching Christ, a Pharisee named Gamaliel made a statement that holds true to this day. We are all the "chosen vessels" of God to bear His name and are called to help our brothers and sisters; "...to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light..." (Acts 26:18) From my mission I have learned "...in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content..." (Phl 4:11) I know now greater than ever before that God is always there, that He loves us and cares for us. Through my testimony I have found a firm trust in the words "...be still and know that I am God." (D&C 101:16) These two years have simply...changed everything.

Well, I have learned many good things during these two years; I have enjoyed my mission. I would never imagine that I would be serving in Salt Lake City. During this time I have met wonderful people from everywhere. I met and taught good people and I have made a lot of friends. When I came out I couldn't understand anything, and I think, at this point, that I can understand a little better. I want to express my gratitude to my companions, they have helped me a lot, and to everyone I want to say: "Thank you."

God lives, He is real, He loves us. Jesus Christ is our Savior, He lives. Joseph Smith was a prophet, the Book of Mormon is the word of God and it changes the lives of people. Gordon B. This Gospel is absolutely real! I am so grateful for the privilege and this opportunity to serve the Lord. His loving hand has lead me through every step of this two-year journey. My companions were outstanding — I have learned from you more than you will know and will always remember the spiritual experiences we have had together. I have been blessed with excellent leaders in the mission and I have learned how to receive counsel from them and make changes in my life. I have seen the magnificent power of the Atonement and the priesthood in action. — lifting, improving, and healing lives of our Heavenly Father's children.

This mission has meant everything to me! I know this church is true, we have a prophet who listens to the voice of our Savior and follows with exactness. Everybody who tries the "virtue of the word of God" experiences immediate blessings. God does answer prayers. As King Benjamin put it, "But this much I can tell you, that if ye do not watch yourselves, and your thoughts, and your words, and your deeds, and observe the commandments of God, and continue in the faith of what ye have heard concerning the coming of our Lord, even unto the end of your lives, ye must perish." What do we need to do? Of course, remember and do everything in our power that we perish not!

Best wishes to all of you, Elder Alexander Y. Ivanov

Elders and Sister, the time has come for me to write my parting thoughts. I have to admit that have had a great mission! The people I have met have been simply amazing! I will surely miss it. I want to, at least, give some advice. My advice to all of you is:

"Have FUN and DO the WORK!" Now, here's my little seed of faith to go along with this. When you have FUN and DO the WORK, God will bless you with the BEST EXPERIENCES that you will ever have in your life. Yes, we need to be serious at times, but if we are too serious, then there is NO JOY in the work, which is NO FUN at all!! Enjoy the time and HAVE FUN! I know that we have a living prophet! 'Oku fakomo'oni ko Siosefa Samita koe palofita! I have loved this work and it's Gospel! It has changed my life, my companions' lives, and other people's lives as well! To all my companions...who are still left in the mission: "Ofa 'atu! A!Gracias por su amistad y su paciencia conmigo! Please keep in touch!" I love you all and go BAPTIZE!!! Well, Elders & Sisters of the Utah Salt Lake City

Mission, I used to be an Argentine but I guess I had to move on to bigger and better things. There have been so many trying experiences on my mission, but at those times I have grown the most. It's been amazing to serve as a full-time missionary and be a part of sharing the gospel and seeing it change lives and work miracles. Just as the scripture in Alma 37:6-7 says, "...by small and simple things are great things brought to pass and bringeth the salvation of many souls." I can see how by the smallest things we do in people's lives makes the biggest impacts, leading them to change their lives. I have loved being a missionary and I am so grateful for all of my companions, especially Pastor T. The mission is amazing!!! Joseph was a prophet and this is the only true and living church upon the face of the earth. Remember who you are always and who you represent. I love you all!!!!

Gracias por todo!!!! Elder Wright

Well, the time has come to start a new adventure.

As I continue on, I will always remember the lessons I have learned on my mission. Obedience is not an option, it is a commandment in order to obtain blessings we desperately need. The Lord IS the Master Teacher in ALL aspects of our lives. TIME DOES FLY! Your companion is different from you and that is OKAY, just LOVE them for who they are. President and Sister Sonne will lead this mission to the next level where it needs to be. President and Sister Moeller gave us a legacy of Obedience and Hard Work - always remember that! And when you get to the end of your mission, be sure you can look back with no regrets - that you did give it your very best and all your heart. The person who is going to hold you most accountable for your work is the Lord - will HE be happy with yours?

My dear friends, there are only two things that I would leave with you: First, as you work diligently, obediently, and most importantly as you plead for and rely upon the grace of Christ, you will accomplish mighty things in the name of the Lord. The second is to never forget what you know and what you have felt. Those memories of what Christ has done in your life are reality and vital. If I see you

"If death is to come let it come while we are busy at work, not while we are huddled together quaking in fear." ..C.S. Lewis

When we come on our mission, we are blessed with the partial responsibility of the salvation of souls. Soon enough we realize we are dealing with potential often too big for us to handle. When we've sunk our own ship and are lost at sea, that is the moment we understand our need for redemption, our need of help from someone greater than ourselves. On my mission, I have begun to realize how much I rely on the Lord and his love, mercy and power. We have all been blessed to labor here together to bring souls to Christ and to establish a pattern of living that our Father intends for us, that we can continue to receive greater light and knowledge throughout our lives. Christ is my Savior, my exemplar and my friend. Joseph was the instrument in restoring the fullness of the light and truth that we now proclaim to the world. To my dearest friends: May the paths our lives take cross again... Your friend, Elder David Ford

A whistle is carried on the desert breeze,

Suggesting a dire need. Rrrngg...rrnggg...

The Phone in my soul is calling

Pick up please. Pick up.

A cool and calming stream ebbs

Through my mind.

Ever-flowing...ever flowing...

Need I say more.

Alma 26:12-14,16 "...yea, behold, many mighty miracles we have wrought in this land, for which we will praise his name forever. Behold, how many thousands of our brethren has he loosed from the pains of hell; and they are brought to sing redeeming love, and this because of the power of his word which is in us, therefore have we not great reason to rejoice? Yea, we have reason to praise him forever, for he is the Most High God, and has loosed our brethren from the chains of hell. Therefore, let us glory, yea, we will glory in the Lord; yea, we will rejoice, for our joy is full; yea, we will praise our God forever. Behold, who can glory too much in the Lord? Yea, who can say too much of his great power, and of his mercy, and of his long-suffering towards the children of men? Behold, I say unto you, I cannot say the smallest part which I feel."

Elder Stallings, can you believe it's over? 18 Months ago. Work hard, be obedient.
